Hoseman John J. Moriarty, age 49, Engine Company 6

On April 19, 1942, Hoseman Moriarty died from injuries he received when he fell from an aerial ladder, which was located at about the 5th floor level, and he landed on the turntable of the ladder truck. The fire was in a 6 story building at 201 State Street and 102-104 Central Street, Downtown. 4 alarms were transmitted on Box 1286, (India & Central Streets.). The alarms were transmitted at 0311, 0321, 0328, and 0355 hours. Hoseman Moriarty had 17 years service.