Lieutenant William A. Hughes, age 57, Engine Company 20

On February 24, 1914, Lieutenant Hughes died as a result of injuries received on January 14, 1914. Engine 20's hose wagon turned over while they were returning from a fire at 386 Ashmont Street, Dorchester, Box 945, (Ashmont & Adams Streets), transmitted at 0114 hours. Several other members of Engine 20 were also injured in the crash. Lieutenant Hughes had 31 years service.