

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH OFFICE.

-1852-

This photograph represents the FIRST ELECTRIC FIRE ALARM APPARATUS ever used. It was located in the City Building, Court Square, placed in service at noon on the 28th day of April, 1852, and gave the first alarm of fire on the following day.

PRESENTED BY

Dr. Wm. F. Channing,

JANUARY, 1863.

THE INVENTOR.