

1868.

1888.

EXERCISES

—OF THE—

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

—OF THE—

TOWN OF HYDE PARK,

—ON—

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, and MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1888.

MONDAY, APRIL 23.

FIREMEN'S PARADE.

The members of the Fire Department and their invited guests will assemble at the Engine House at 9 A. M. The procession, headed by the National Guard Brass Band, of Boston, will move at 10 o'clock, over the following route:—Central Park Ave., to West River St., to Glenwood Ave., to Childs St., to Gordon Ave., to Austin St., to Summer St. Place, to Summer St., to Gordon Ave., to West River St., to Central Park Ave., to Walnut St., to Bridge St., to Water St., to Dana Ave., to Loring St., to Williams Ave., to Pond St., to Fairmount Ave., to East River St., to Arlington St., to Central Ave., to Everett Square, to reviewed by the town officials; thence to West River St., to Central Park Ave., to Engine House and be dismissed. They will assemble in Engine House Hall for collation, and at about 2 o'clock will answer an alarm from Box 12 for trial.

The following towns have signified their intention of being represented:

TOWN OF MILTON, by the Board of Engineers and firemen; 1 steamer, 1 hose carriage and 1 chemical engine.

TOWN OF DEDHAM, by the Board of Engineers, Hose Companies No.'s 1 and 2, with carriages.

TOWN OF CANTON, by the Board of Engineers and firemen.

TOWN OF HYDE PARK, by the Board of Engineers and firemen, Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, Hose Companies No.'s 1, 2 and 3, Chemical Engine No. 1, and Steamers No.'s 1 and 2.