

Hoseman William H. Chapman, age 55, Engine Company 1

On July 31, 1896, Hoseman Chapman was thrown from the driver's seat of the steam engine and run over while responding to Box 134, at 1110 hours (West Fifth & "D" Streets) for a fire in a stable on West 4th Street, near "B" Street, South Boston. Hoseman Chapman had 23 years service.