

Hoseman Reuben Hanaford, age 25, Hose Company 5

On February 24, 1862, Hoseman Hanaford suffocated from heavy smoke, during a fire in the building at North & Commercial Streets, 4 alarms, District 1-Station 4, at the Eastern Railroad Depot on the waterfront. The alarms were struck at 2147, 2205, 2210, and 2216 hours.