

Ladderman Daniel P. McLaughlin, age 43, Ladder Company 20

On May 12, 1953, Ladderman McLaughlin died from injuries he received when he fell from a ground ladder in the rear of the building when a wall collapsed. The fire was in a paper warehouse at 512-520 Dudley Street, Roxbury, on November 1, 1952. 3 alarms were struck on Box 3141, (Dudley & East Cottage Streets) [now Box 1721]. The Mack tractor of Ladder Company 4 was damaged extensively in the collapse. Ladderman McLaughlin had 10 years of service.
