

Hoseman Joseph Pierce, age 48, Engine Company 4
Hoseman James Quigley, Engine Company 4

On August 13, 1884, Hosemen Joseph Pierce and James Quigley were burned to death when the roof collapsed and they fell into the inferno at 108-112 Beech Street, Downtown (the "Old Beech Street Markey"). Three alarms were sounded from Box 54 (Oxford & Beech Streets). Both hosemen had less than 1 year of service.
