AN ODE TO 17

Seventeen's a number,
Some folks simply think
Just another number
to write with pen and ink;
Not so to me; to me it's grand,
a symbol for which I'll always stand;
Good Old seventeen's my lucky star,
My guiding light from near — from far;
When I became Lieutenant,
She gleamed with pride;
When I was made Captain,
She was by my side.
Seventeen's my gracious lady
That's very plain to see,
Ladder number seventeen
The Pride of B * F * D *
Some folks travel life alone,
Their lucky number never seen
Mine is obvious, make no bones,
My beloved is 17.
