

FIREMEN READY TO DEDICATE MONUMENT.

Memorial at Forest Hills to be Unveiled Sunday By Misses McLean.

be led by Capt John J. McCarthy. The Stars of Jamaica, Jamaica Plain Veterans, Barnicoat veterans, Boston veterans, Charlestown veterans, Roxbury veterans and the Tenean veterans of Neponset declare that they will be strongly represented.

The parade will form at the headquarters of the Barnicoat association, 380 Tremont st, at 10 Sunday morning, marching from there to East Lenox st under the leadership of Chief Marshal E. A. Bennett of the Teneans. At East Lenox st cars will be taken to the cemetery, where the exercises will begin probably about 11:45.

MARGARET AND JOSEPHINE McLEAN.

Daughters of Capt Walter M. McLean of Engine 46, Who Will Unveil Firemen's Monument at Forest Hills Sunday Morning.

Active and pensioned members of the fire and protective departments and representatives of the veteran firemen's organizations will unite Sunday morning at Forest Hills cemetery in paying their annual tribute to their deceased protners.

It will be memorial Sunday and the principal ceremony of the day will be the unveiling of the monument to the memory of the dead firemen by their friends in and out of the department. Miss Josephine and Miss Margaret McLean of Ashmont, daughters of Capt Walter M. McLean of engine company 46, chairman of the monument committee, will unveil the monument, while Hon John R. Murphy of Charlestown will deliver the address. The nation, state and city will be represented, while invitations have been sent to the families of the brave men who sleep beneath the shadow of the monument.

The work of the monument committee has been carried on under the direction of Capt McLean, while the memorial exercises will be in charge of hoseman Daniel W. Mahoney of engine 42.

The Commissioner Parker and Supt Abbott of the protective department have ordered details from their departments to participate in the parade Sunday morning. The protective men will